STATE ALIENISTS DECLARE THAW TO BE DANGEROUS

Three Physicians Testify That Stanford White's Slayer Is Still Insane---Thaw on Stand.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Aug. 4.—Three of those medical men known as alienists, who have become such a familiar part of modern criminal court procedure, united in the Supreme Court yesterday to make it unpleasant for Harry K. Thaw, who killed Stanford White and was adjudged insane, but now demands his release from the Matteawan Asylum as a mentally normal man.

All three testified that he was insane, and when Thaw took the stand briefly, after some disconcerting testimony, he was plainly ruffled and nervous, but Mr. Jerome dismissed him after a few comparatively unimportant questions.

Of the alienists who testified, Dr. Austin Flint, Dr. William Hirsch and Dr. Amos T. Baker, the last gave testimony of the most importance. He is acting superintendent of Matteawan and appears as a witness without compensation, the only alienist in the case with this distinction. Justice Mills called attention to this fact and took a hand in questioning him.

Dr. Baker said that in his opinion Thaw was not only insane now, but a dangerous person to be at large.

Shortly after this, Mr. Jerome called Thaw to the stand. He was pale and apparently shaken. The district attorney put some rather incoherent notes written by the prisoner in evidence and asked him to explain them. After parries back and forth and laborious explanations by Thaw as to the meaning of certain writings, he said:

"And I want you to know, Mr. Jerome, that many of these notes you call suggestions were written at the request of my lawyers."

"Do you mean to tell us, who observed you in both homicide trials," asked Mr. Jerome, "that you did not believe you did not know more about the case than your lawyer did?"

"I do," was Thaw's quick reply. He admitted that he did offer some suggestions to his lawyers.

Thaw was excused after a bit more of this ordeal and Dr. Austin Flint was called. Dr. Flint described a paranoiac as a person dominated by certain delusions, whose mental and physical state might not otherwise be affected, except in so far as these delusions influence him.

"Paranoiacs," he concluded impressively, "never recover."

Dr. Hirsch varied the general verdict by declaring Thaw a "degenerate paranoiac."

Charles Morschauser, Thaw's attorney, attacked this testimony with every legal expedient. In Dr. Flint's case he endeavored to show that he had given contradictory testimony in two previous cases, where he appeared as an expert. He caused Dr. Hirsch some unhappy moments by inquiring about a book he is writing.

"Do you in this book claim that Jesus Christ was a paranoiac," he asked.

The alienist's reply was that he would not like to give an opinion.

The alienists yesterday delivered their opinions of Thaw in answer to Jerome's hypothetical question, only a small part of which was read.

The State's alienists will probably occupy the center of the stage for two days more.

Mr. Morschauser will continue his cross-examination of Dr. Flint and Dr. Hirsch. Dr. Carlos F. McDonald has yet to testify. He will be called by Mr. Jerome.

"And I want you to know, Mr. Jerome, that many of these notes you call suggestions were written at the request of my lawyers."

MISS ELLA JOLLY IS FIRST IN SOUTHERN

DEVELOPS GREAT STRENGTH IN CLOSING DAYS OF CONTEST.

Only Two Weeks More and Race Will Be Over and Prizes Awarded to the Winners.

Miss Ella Jolly of Orange Heights takes first place in the Eastern and Southern section, with Miss Mabel McCredie second. Miss Beal holds first place in Gainesville and Miss Lucinda Bryant of Bell is first in the Northern and Western section.

Miss Jolly has developed remarkable strength during the past three weeks, and has gone from about tenth place to first, which shows how rapid she has been advancing.

Only two more weeks remain for the final wind-up, when the grand prizes will be awarded, also all of the certificates mailed to the ones entitled to them, and the work that will be put forth by the candidates from this time on will be interesting.

Some of the out-of-town candidates are now centering on the city and either visiting here regularly or coming each week to work for their interest, and it is rumored that many of the lower ones have great surprises to spring during the next few days.

The prizes are all handsome and expensive and are well worth the hard work that has been done to secure them.

Following is the result of the canvass:

COACH TUMBLED DOWN EMBANKMENT; 10 HURT

Train Leaves the Track on the Central of Georgia and Many Have Narrow Escape.

STILLMORE, Ga., Aug. 4.—Ten persons received injuries when an east-bound mixed train on the Brewton to Pineora branch of the Central of Georgia was derailed near Lexsy at 11:05 o'clock yesterday morning and the one coach on the train rolled down an embankment. P. M. Perle of Savannah received slight injuries, while J. D. Martin, who resides at 120 Jones street, west, was also hurt. The list of injured includes, in addition:

Mrs. L. M. Williamson, Vidalia, Ga.

Mrs. Victoria Murray, Mrs. Alice Murray and child, all of Summit, Ga.

J. F. Etheridge, Adrian, Ga.

J. M. Thigpen, Norristown, Ga.

D. D. Finn, Dover, Ga.

T. W. Belcher, conductor, Brewton, Georgia.

The injuries of Mr. Etheridge are the most serious. His head was badly hurt and he has internal injuries.

Crowded Coach Turns Over.

All of the injured were brought to this place and are being cared for here.

The accident occurred one mile west of Lexsy, near bridge A 103. The coach which was attached to the rear of the train followed the engine and freight cars from the rails, ran on to the edge of the fill and tumbled down the embankment, turning over. All of those who were hurt were in this coach. Their injuries chiefly are bad bruises and cuts, but none of them, with the possible exception of Mr. Etheridge, is fatally hurt.

The train was in charge of Conductor Belcher, and the coach was well crowded. An examination of the track at the scene of the accident leaves the cause of the wreck a mystery.

Woman Asks for Divorce; Husband Serving Sentence

TAMPA, Aug. 4.—Three divorce suits were placed on the docket Monday, one of which is of more than passing interest. Walter Geiger is being sued for absolute divorce by his wife. Geiger is serving five years in the turpentine camp for securing $280 under false pretenses, and it is thought his misdoing and the disgrace of his sentence is the basis of Mrs. Geiger's complaint.

Geiger was a former resident of Tampa and upon leaving secured from the American National Bank a cashier's check for $280, which he did not cash in. Later he returned to Tampa and made claim of losing the original check. The bank issued a duplicate cashier's check for the amount. Geiger then went to Jacksonville and cashed the duplicate, and later presented the original and received the face of the check. The two checks turned up in due time at the American National Bank, but Geiger had flown. The matter was placed in the hands of the sheriff's office and Chief Deputy L. J. Lester gave it personal attention.

Geiger soon afterwards wrote from Montreal, Canada, to a friend in this city and the letter fell into the hands of the chief. He had given no city address, but had written on letter paper of a restaurant. He wired the police of Montreal these facts and they nabbed Geiger, who fought extradition for three months. The Tampa authorities won out on the case and Mr. Lester went to Canada and secured his man, who was tried and sentenced as above stated.

Did Mrs. Richmond Kill McTavish for His Money?

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Aug. 4.—In the district court yesterday Mrs. Elizabeth Richmond was given a preliminary hearing on the charge of having murdered Stewart McTavish, whose body was found on July 23rd lying on a bed in her room in East Cambridge with a bullet through his right eye and the whole side of his head beaten in with an axe. The woman was found in a dead stupor from liquor in the room next to McTavish's battered body.

Much mystery surrounds the murder. The motive was robbery, the police say, for McTavish had a considerable sum of money on his person when he started for Boston from Gardner, Mass., where he was employed as an attendant at the State insane asylum.

Mrs. Richmond, the accused woman, has come under the eye of the police on several occasions in the past. About a year ago she was examined by the police in connection with the death of the wife of a Boston merchant who mysteriously expired after a three days' sojourn in the Richmond house. Later a man is said to have met death under unusual circumstances in the Richmond house. On neither occasion could ground be found on which to base a charge against the woman.

Man Held Captive While Water Arose About Him

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Aug. 4.—Caught fast in a pump in the No. 14 colliery of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company at Plainsville, Robert Taylor, the night engineer, was held while the water slowly rose about him. It had reached his chin as he stood on his toes when rescuers found him. A few minutes later he would have been drowned.

Taylor went into the workings early in the morning to repair the pump and his hand was caught in the

PALATKA COMES FOR HER "INNINGS" TODAY

MANAGER DAVIS SAYS WE MUST AND WILL WIN.

His Instructions That "Nobody Sleeps" Will Take Some Effect on Part of Players.

"Right after Palatka, and nobody will sleep today"—G. Henry Davis.

Manager Davis promises an interesting and exciting contest at the ball park this afternoon when Palatka will come here for the purpose of playing two games with the Oak Halls.

The visitors will bring with them, fair weather prevailing, not less than 400 fans and fanabellies to assist them.

Palatka has strengthened her forces to some extent since she played with Gainesville, but Manager Davis has also been busy and may spring some surprises on them before the game is finished, for he states that win or loss will, and both of the games at that.

What is needed now mostly by the association is a revival of confidence and large attendance at the park, for this will enthuse the members as much as the high salaries they are receiving, and then when they make errors there will be that many more to "cuss" them.

It has been suggested by a large number of the citizens that in view of the fact Palatka is closing her stores and taking a half-holiday Gainesville could easily afford to close during the game and give all the employees a chance to visit the park, and if Manager Davis is wise he will circulate a petition for the closing.

Palatka defeated Ocala in the game there Tuesday 3 to 0, and it was an interesting contest. Walker not allowing a hit to the Ocala nine.

Palatka Shuts Ocala Out.

In the second game at Palatka yesterday between Ocala and that city Ocala was defeated by a score of 4 to 0. The result of these two games can better show the people what to expect in the two games between Gainesville and the Palatka boys on the local lot for the next two days.

A little want ad. will accomplish big results.

IMPROVEMENT AT AIR DOME.

More Raised Seats Have Just Been Placed in Commission.

Manager Wellington has had carpenters busy for the past two days placing more raised seats in the Air Dome, which will give all of the occupants of the place a better view.

Owing to all seats having been placed on a level, it was necessary for nearly all parties sitting in the rear of the place to stand in order to see the performance, but under the new plan the seats are arranged for the convenience and comfort of all.

The show is drawing large crowds each night and the famous little act now being given is exciting considerable interest among the people generally.

Ocala and Gainesville.

A special to The Tampa Times dated Ocala, July 3rd, says:

"The Ocala baseball team is playing at Palatka today and tomorrow and then they go to Daytona, where they are scheduled for Thursday and Friday. The boys return home Saturday and will meet other local teams on the local diamond.

"Nineteen games are scheduled here during August and five away from home. Of these, the game to be played in Gainesville on the 26th will no doubt prove the most interesting, owing to the rivalry between the two teams. The honors so far this season are even, each team winning one game, and it is expected that from 400 to 500 fans of this city will journey to Gainesville to witness the deciding game."

Rev. Warren's Explanation.

The Ocala Star of Tuesday says: "A letter from Rev. L. B. Warren, who is now visiting his mother in Macon, Ga., says regarding his visit to Ocala from Gainesville, about ten days ago, which the Gainesville correspondent of The Times-Union considered such a darksome mystery: 'My coming to Ocala was not mysterious, nor was my leaving Gainesville nebulous in the least degree. Harry Shaw dropped in at the morning service, consented to take the evening hour, in view of two letters handed me by Will Dale, calling me to Ocala, if the trip were possible. So I left full explanations with Shaw and Dale and lied me thence!'

WALDO AND MICANOPY PLAYED A TIE GAME

Game Was Full of Amusement and Lasted Ten Innings.

Waldo and Micanopy journeyed here yesterday for the purpose of "cleaning up" each other, but after the tenth inning the game was called, the score standing 7 to 7.

Waldo easily had the Micanopy players outclassed from a general standpoint of ball players, for their team has been playing good amateur ball up to the contest here yesterday, but in this game they went to pieces and the battery, which did good work, received poor support.

Local interest was in favor of the Micanopites from the first owing to Waldo having made four runs before they had managed to score even one, and in the last half of the eighth inning the small crowd present went wild over the errors of Waldo, which let in five runners, allowing them to tie the score. This reminded one of the game of a few days ago when the Olympics tallied six times on the Oak Halls in one inning.

In the tenth inning Willie Jolly prevented Micanopy from scoring when two were out and second and third occupied by making a beautiful one-handed catch in left after a hard run. The man who held down second base, and Curry Merchant on short, for Micanopy, did the best work for their team.

The score by innings:

Waldo... 0 3 1 0 1 0 2 0 0 6—7

Micanopy 0 0 2 0 0 0 0 5 0 0—7

The batteries were: Micanopy, Sparkman and Hester; Waldo, Prewitt and Harvey.

MELROSE NEWS NOTES.

MELROSE, Aug 4.—Rev. Barr and family have returned from their vacation and their many friends are pleased to see them back.

The "Santa Fe" took out a full load of Leconte pears in barrels on Tuesday.

During the month of July the total rainfall as measured by U. S. Standard gauge was 11.23 inches.

Prof. Looney's school in higher arithmetic is progressing nicely, 20 scholars taking the course.

The birthdays of Miss Clara Belle Mack and Herbert Chamberlain were celebrated on Thursday by a jolly children's party at Mrs. Chamberlain's. A Trip on the lake in the "Dixie" was one of enjoyable features of the afternoon.

The store of A. A. McRae is being much improved by the repainting of the interior and the fixtures.

Your correspondent had occasion to take a drive through the so-called Price settlement, near Melrose, yesterday. It was a great pleasure to see the fine fields of corn, averaging over 20 bushels per acre, the large peanut patches, sugar cane and velvet bean fields and to see the cotton pickers at work already. To show what can be done by our farmers it might be mentioned that the five Price brothers put up this season 25, 200 cans of tomatoes, mostly three-pound cans, and there are others. The failure of the peach crop prevented them from putting up any this year. For all these goods there is a ready sale, as they are far superior to the Northern article.

What Kodol Will Do

For you, when you need it. But the longer you neglect Indigestion, the more you will suffer before Kodol can restore Good Digestion.

And, of course, indigestion if neglected long enough, brings on serious diseases in which Kodol cannot benefit you. Some of these there is no help for at all.

There are, in fact, very few ailments which cannot be traced directly to impure blood. And impure blood is always due to a disordered stomach.

Use Kodol and prevent Nervous Dyspepsia.

Kodol will effectually assist Nature to secure a complete restoration of good digestion. It does this by at once digesting all food in the stomach and keeping it digested, until the stomach is rested and can resume its own work. Kodol removes the cause—and the effect quickly removes itself.

When it is recalled that Apoplexy, Heart Disease, Cancer—and even Consumption—are due to poor digestion and poisons thus transmitted to the blood, and throughout the system—the importance of maintaining good digestion is at once realized.

We knew what Kodol would do before ever the first bottle was sold. If we did not know just what it will do, we would not guarantee it the way we do.

It is easy for you to prove Kodol—the next (or the first) time you have an attack of indigestion. And you will certainly be surprised at the results. It is perfectly harmless.

There can be no harm in trying something that may do you a great deal of good—when it costs you nothing if it doesn't.

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today and get a dollar bottle. Then after you have used the entire contents of the bottle if you can honestly say, that it has not done you any good, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money without question or delay. We will then pay the druggist for the bottle. Don't hesitate, all druggists know that our guarantee is good. This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family. The large bottle contains 2½ times as much as the fifty cent bottle.

Kodol is prepared at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

The South is getting so solid that even a hurricane can't even blow it away.

There is absolutely no difference between the Cummins view and that of the President.

Friend Taft, it seems, thinks he may essay a little tariff revising on his own account.

That's an astonishing sight—Cabinet officers actually cutting down the Government expenses.

Senator Root seems to hold a position equivalent to that of advisory counsel to the administration.

It looks as if the tariff dispute might enable Mr. Taft to build up an early record as a peacemaker.

The biter also gets bit. Barney Oldfield, the famous auto driver, has been run down by an automobile.

Teddy's caught a dingalinga, shot a digdig in the eye; oh, what a lot of funny things for a Smithsonian pie!

Ahmed Mizra, the new ruler of Persia, cried when he was taken away from his mother. Poor little kid!

Mr. Taft knows, moreover, that in the bright lexicon of golfology there are no such words as 'that hazard is too much for me.'

It is understood that notwithstanding the defeat of his proposal for a duty on tea, Senator Tillman will continue to take a little sugar in his'n.

"People worry me too much," says Mr. John D. Rockefeller. And Mr. Rockefeller's idea of relieving them is to raise the price of kerosene oil now and then.

A Southern State has made it a misdemeanor to give trading stamps. A jail sentence was about the only thing left one could not get with the trading stamps.

A Colorado man says he has observed that "only ugly women vote." Evidently the rise of the suffragette movement is to be counteracted by subtle diplomacy.

It would seem that President Taft had succeeded in getting well under the epidermis of some of those Senators who fancied their hides were thoroughly protected.

The steel trust is pleased with the new tariff bill. The other trusts have not been heard from, but there is reason to believe they are equally gratified. They wrote it all right.

Mr. F. W. Hensel, an Englishman, practiced in the art of astronomy, thinks he would have more success signaling Venus than Mars. It does seem more likely that Venus would talk back some.

HOW FIRE HURTS THE FIELDS.

Of course the greatest loss sustained through the burning of vegetable matter which should be mixed with the soil, says The Raleigh (N. C.) Progressive Farmer, is the loss of the humus-forming materials; but the actual loss in plant food is also worthy of serious consideration. The phosphorus and potassium contained in the vegetable matter are not destroyed by burning, for these mineral plant foods remain in the ashes; but the nitrogen which our soils need most is driven off into the air and lost.

We repeat that the greatest loss is the destruction of the humus-forming materials, but let us see just what the loss of nitrogen amounts to when a ton of crabgrass, broomedge, or cornstalks is burned. If the material burned be Japan clover or other legumes, the loss of nitrogen is much greater. A ton of crabgrass hay contains about 22 pounds of nitrogen, and this is worth 20 cents a pound, which gives it a value of $4.40. A ton of crabgrass and other materials equally rich in nitrogen is often burned off each acre. That is, for each acre we burn over we may easily destroy $4.40 worth of the very plant food our soils need most.

We are slow to accept such statements as facts, because the plowing under of these materials does not give immediate evidence of any such value to be obtained from the plowing under of such a quantity of corn stover or crabgrass. That is, more benefit to the first succeeding crop would be obtained from the application of $4 worth of cottonseed meal than from plowing under a ton of cornstalks. This is undoubtedly so, but the effects of plowing under humus-forming materials are not alone measured by the nitrogen they contain, and are not limited to the first year. It is this working for immediate results alone that has brought our soils to that degree of infertility represented by an average yield of 200 pounds of lint cotton and 15 bushels of corn per acre. No rich land ever became suddenly unproductive; nor can a depleted soil be economically built up to a high degree of fertility in one or two years. From these facts we should learn that farming lands for this year's results exclusively, while sometimes necessary, if persisted in is certain to lead to soil depletion and finally to agricultural and financial bankruptcy.

A new ministry was formed in France with far less difficulty than was expected, but no one can tell how long it will last. The fact that members of the French Legislature are split up into a number of groups instead of forming two strong and compact opposing parties accounts for the many parliamentary crises that occur and the precarious existence of ministries. Fortunately the republican form of government is so entrenched in the convictions of the people that no fear of upsetting it now exists.

If a corporation voluntarily confesses to having put its hands in other peoples' pockets and abstracted hundreds of thousands of dollars, its members are usually let off with a minimum fine. But if an ordinary person, on being arrested, voluntarily pleads guilty to taking a few dollars he is sent to prison. Why this difference when the offence in both instances is the same in character?

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever: nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

A GREAT RESERVOIR BURSTS WITH ROAR
AND WATER RUSHED INTO IRRIGATED DISTRICT.
1,000,000,000 Cubic Feet of Water
Loosed at Once—Great Damage.
No Lives Lost.

FORT MORGAN, Colo., Aug. 4.—The irrigation section north of here is the scene of devastation, owing to the bursting of the retaining walls of the great Government reservoir Monday afternoon.

With a roar, 1,000,000,000 cubic feet of water rushed out of the widening breach, carrying everything before it. It swept across the valley with a roar, and although the ground is almost a dead level, it cut a great shallow ditch half a mile and more than a mile long. Several farms were destroyed by the great wash of waters, but it so happened that no one was caught in the flood.

The damage will reach several hundred thousand dollars. The Government had expended a great sum of money in building the reserve wall.

spent last Sunday with friends and relatives at Hawthorn.

John Hayman spent last Sunday evening with a lady friend of his at Island Grove.

The citizens of Hawthorn and Lochloosa gathered at the picnic grounds on the banks of the beautiful Lochloosa lake Thursday for a fish-fry. The day was beautiful up until time for dinner, when the downpour of rain descended. The fish were fried and after the rain dinner was served. The remainder of the evening was spent in launch riding on the lake. About 6 o'clock all departed for their homes after having spent a most enjoyable day. There will be another.

The young folks gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Caldwell Sunday night for the purpose of a "Sing." The guests arrived at 7:45 o'clock and sang until about 10 o'clock, when they all departed with rather weak lungs.

I. W. Stewart, manager of the Lochloosa barber shop, made a business trip to Hawthorn Monday.

E. A. Dupree and wife of Island Grove spent last Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Tompkins.

Miss Jane Beal, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Haymans here, has gone to Orange Springs to spend a few days with relatives.

J. N. Haymans made a business trip to Gainesville Monday.

Carbit Ergle of Island Grove was in town Monday shaking hands with his old friends.

The Stone Houses of Easter Island. The remarkable stone houses of Easter Island are built against a terrace of earth or rock, which in some cases forms the back wall of the dwelling. They are built of small slabs of stratified basaltic rock piled together without cement. No regularity of plan is shown in the construction of a majority of them. The average measurement is as follows: Height from floor to ceiling, 4 feet 6 inches; thickness of walls, 4 feet to 10 inches; width of rooms, 4 feet 6 inches; length of rooms, 12 feet 8 inches; average size of doorways—height, 20 inches; width, 19 inches.

Skeptical. "I kind of agree with the folks who say that story about George Washington and the cherry tree is a myth," said Farmer Corntassel after a thoughtful silence.

"For what reason?" inquired his wife.

"Well, human nature is pretty much the same in all generations, and if I had a boy who picked up an ax and voluntarily went out to chop wood I wouldn't chide him. I'd hand him a medal."—Washington Star.

Ancient Greek Training.

The manner in which the Athenians brought up their children is worth remembering. At seven years of age the Athenian lad entered the palestra, which was essentially a playground. All the first and better half of the day was spent in gymnastics, dancing, games and play. In the afternoon there were singing, some writing, some reading, all in the open air, and then came a long period of play again. Such was the schooling of the Greek lad up to the age of ten or eleven, and it did not differ essentially up to the age of sixteen, except in the severity of the exercises. And yet the world has not ceased to marvel at the results of the Greek education. It produced the highest type of man, physically and intellectually, that the world has ever seen, which Galton says was as far in advance of the modern Englishman as the modern Englishman is in advance of the native African. In physical beauty, courage and patriotism, in philosophy, literature, architecture and art, the Greeks have been the unsurpassed models of the ages and are still the inspiration of our schools today. But they placed the emphasis upon hygiene, exercise, games and play, which are too much neglected in these days.—Kansas City Star.

Geographical Knowledge in 1492.

But very little was known in regard to the extent of the world in Aristotle's day, in the fourth century before Christ, and but very little more was known about it 1,800 years later. In the time of Columbus. In 2,000 years the world had in reality retrograded rather than advanced. It was the popular belief in the time of Columbus that the world was flat, though many contemporary scholars thought differently. The great civilizations of the world at that time were grouped around the Mediterranean sea, although England was a considerable power and the Scandinavians were a great maritime people. But Europeans at that time knew but little of Asia and but little of Africa, and America, of course, was undreamed of. Even after Columbus had discovered the latter continent he was perfectly oblivious of the fact. He thought Haiti was Cipango or Japan and for a long time regarded Cuba as a part of the mainland of Asia.

A Famous All Potato Banquet.

One of the most remarkable menus ever drawn up must have been that of the feast in Paris to which Benjamin Franklin, Lavoisier, the founder of modern chemistry, and other distinguished men sat down as guests of Parmentier. Every dish at this banquet was made of potatoes, and even the brandy and liqueurs were the product of the same vegetable. This was Parmentier's final proof to his skeptical fellow countrymen that potatoes were not poison, as they persisted in believing. Louis XVI. himself was one of Parmentier's earliest converts, granted him land on which to grow his plants and did not disdain to wear the potato flower as a buttonhole. Then Parmentier cleverly posted guards round his potato fields by day and withdrew them by night, so that people were tempted to come then, steal, eat and be convinced. The all potato banquet was the climax of the great campaign.—Chicago News.

TELEPHONE TALKS

The Long Distance System

One of the most valuable features operating in various sections of the country, to our subscribers and to the public generally, is our connection with the extensive long distance lines of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the other associated Bell Telephone companies.

We own thousands of miles of long distance lines in the seven States in which we operate and in addition can connect any telephone in our system with lines extending to any other city in which a Bell Telephone system is operated.

These long distance lines are of the most modern and improved construction and are maintained at a high state of efficiency. The Bell systems, arrangement between the Bell Telephone companies is it possible to go to a Bell Telephone almost anywhere, ask for "Long Distance" and be put in communication with almost any point in the country.

This vast network of wires, radiating throughout the nation, is used daily in commerce and for social purposes by the banker, the farmer and citizens in all walks of life and our plant here is an important link in this great chain.

Table Manners In a Moorish Gentleman's House—A Particular Mark of Favor by the Host to His Guests That Is Not Always Appreciated.

During my stay in Fez I took every opportunity of gaining a closer insight into the domestic life of the inhabitants, and for that reason, writes Lawrence Harris in the London Graphic, I heartily accepted an invitation to dine with Abdullah el Fast, the minister for foreign affairs.

On arriving at his home I was ushered into a large room in which were seated five or six guests of high rank. Abdullah took me by the hand and gravely introduced me to the company. A silken cushion was placed on the divan, upon which I seated myself.

The repast commenced with green tea served in small glasses. The custom of preparing this is peculiar to the country. To the principal native guest is given the honor of making the tea. In this case it was Raisuli, who, being under British protection, had been invited to dinner in my honor. He accepted the invitation to do the honors of the evening and ordered the negress to place the native brass tray in front of where he sat cross legged on the divan. The methods of proceeding are not such as would recommend themselves to an English tea party.

Measuring out the tea in his hand, he dropped it in the pot. The negress slave then poured boiling water over it. This was swilled around and the water poured off. The pot was then filled with huge lumps of loaf sugar, broken roughly from a sugar loaf, and a little mint was added. A small quantity of the concoction was poured into a glass, sipped and poured back again into the pot. This process was continued until the required delicacy of flavor was reached.

The company then drank the customary three glasses of this syrupy mixture, drawing it through their teeth with a sound like a horse drinking. As each glass was finished and replaced in the tray it was refilled and handed back by the "keeper of the pot," who was supposed to remember to whom each glass belonged. At a sign from the host the tray was removed, and another slave approached each person with a brass bowl, soap and towel and a bronze kettle of warm water. The guests washed their right hands preparatory to the dinner.

We all sat around a small table about six inches high, upon which was placed the dish. The courses were many and varied. As says the Hadith, "The blessing of God rests on the food taken with the fingers," so all good Mohammedans follow the words of their prophet. No knife must be used on bread, and the small round loaves are broken up and handed around. The tajin, or stew, is not difficult to manipulate, although the olives floating in argou oil slip through your fingers. Miniature tugs of war occur with your vis-a-vis in the effort to dismember a fowl or divide tough meat.

As a particular mark of favor the host will from time to time place before you a little titbit which he has torn off with his greasy fingers. However your stomach rebels against it, you have to swallow the morsel. During the meal the national dish of couscous is invariably served. This dish is made from broken grains of wheat specially prepared by the women. It is served piled up like a huge cone, with the meat on top. Each person scoops out his own little hole in the side and must not trespass on his neighbor's portion.

To the inexperienced it is difficult to manage the couscous without making an awful mess of it. The small grain must be judiciously compressed into a loose ball and then shot into the mouth with the back of the thumb. The Moors take extreme delight in watching the ineffectual efforts of Europeans who are in difficulties with their couscous. Moors are very great eaters, and little conversation is carried on during the meal. A bowl of water is passed from hand to hand for those who require drink. The last course finished, the bowl and water are once more requisitioned and the hands and mouth washed.

IDLY WANDERING.

When the Overwrought Worker Cuts Loose From Care.

When a business man suffers from overstrain or a student from overwork sometimes, instead of taking to bed, he disappears. Suddenly he is missing, all trace of him lost. His family and friends invariably fear the worst. They imagine he has met with accident and is lying unconscious in a hospital or has parted with his wits and is confined in an asylum or has even taken his own life.

These things are all possible, but the probable thing is none of them. The probable thing is that the overwrought man has yielded to a natural impulse and instinctively has sought a cure by becoming a wanderer for the time. He has put the cares of the old life behind him and with them the people that recall the old life and has given himself up to the healing of the road. To drift with no well defined object, to see strange places and faces, ever to answer the call of the beyond—"die ferne," as the Germans call it—is more than a dream lying somewhere in the back of every man's mind, where it was lodged by some ancestor of the nomad period; it is one of nature's own remedies for the worries of life.

For the man with a great sorrow, for the man with a troubled conscience, for the man whose nerves are not treating him right, travel, change of scene, is one of the things the wise physician will prescribe. If it be a veritable tramp afoot the cure will be speedier and more complete and may work physical regeneration into the bargain.—New York Mail.

A FLOWER AND A WISH.

The Romantic Marriage of De Lesseps of Suez Canal Fame.

Sir Henry Brackenbury tells in Blackwood's Magazine the story of the romantic marriage of M. de Lesseps. A Frenchman living in Reunion was compelled by the illness of his wife to take her to France. He sailed with his wife and two young daughters, but the wife died on the voyage. Some time afterward the Frenchman called on M. de Lesseps, told him of his misfortunes and of his sufferings on the long sea voyage and expressed the wish to dedicate the remainder of his life to the furtherance of the construction of the Suez canal. De Lesseps gave him an appointment at Ismailia, and employment was found in one of the workshops there for his daughters.

One day De Lesseps' attention was attracted by these two girls, with whom he entered into conversation. He came again next day and gave to each of them a flower, saying that they should frame a wish the last thing at night and that if in the morning they found that the flowers had opened the wish would be granted.

On the following morning he went to their house and found one of the girls smiling, the other in tears. He asked the cause of the latter's sadness. "My flower has not opened," she replied.

"Tell me your wish, so that if possible it may be granted," responded M. de Lesseps.

"Ah, to you least of all men I can tell it!" was her answer. The great engineer married her.

Chinese Dramatic Crudities.

Here is a sample of one of the naughtiest bits of Chinese stage craft. Hom Ling, leading tragedian, playing the part of the younger son, renders a solo which means that the widow and orphans are going to the temple to celebrate funeral rites. The property man sets on the stage a little box for an altar and throws over the widow's head a white veil, symbol of mourning. Then Hom Ling, as the younger son, waves his hands and kicks his foot like a man punting a football. This signifies that the rest of the family is out of his sphere of action. The scene has officially changed from a house to a temple. So, while the rest of the family kneels before the altar, Hom Ling strolls over and chats with one of the musicians who happens to be resting—Everybody's Magazine.

What Forty Poles Make.

A good story is told about a certain professor whose business it was to lecture to a number of students on surveying. During one of the lectures the professor said that in his opinion the pole was of little or no value. To the astonishment of those present a Polish gentleman arose and after accusing the professor of insulting his countrymen demanded an apology.

The professor thereupon explained that the pole to which he referred was merely a term of measurement. The Polish gentleman, seeing his mistake, asked the professor to forgive his apparent rudeness. To this the professor smartly replied:

"You could not be rude, sir, even if you tried, for it takes forty poles to make one road!"—London Mail.

SOUTH SIDE SQUARE — GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA</

GAINESVILLE, —THE— University City.

Gainesville is conceded to be the most enterprising as well as the most beautiful city in the interior of Florida. It is located in the very center of the State, half way between the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts, surrounded by lands of such fertility as to be capable of producing a great variety of crops; in the heart of the truck-growing, phosphate and naval stores belt. She has the best educational advantages in the State, good churches, with edifices which are superior to any town of its size in Florida, with large and consistent congregations; has a climate which cannot be excelled for health and pleasure. All these natural advantages, combined with a progressive and enterprising cosmopolitan citizenship, are sure to make a big city.

There are many natural attractions in close proximity to the city, some of which are Alachua Sink, Paine's Prairie, the Devil's Mill Hopper, Warren's Cave, and Lake Newnan, all of which are reached by private conveyance.

Spring Park Stock Farm, the largest and finest live stock farm in the State, is only eight miles west of the city and is reached by a good hard road, affording a most pleasant drive.

The farmers of Alachua county, of which Gainesville is the county seat, "live at home and board at the same place." The temperature is very uniform, scarcely ever reaching the nineties in summer or the twenties in winter. The population of Gainesville is about eight thousand, representing nearly every nationality on the face of the earth, and strangers always meet with a hearty welcome.

The University of Florida for young men and the National Agricultural Experiment Station are located within the corporate limits of the city. In fact, Gainesville has so many things that we must be pardoned if we omit a few of them in the following enumeration of what

TWO PIANOS AND A DIAMOND RING

Total Cash Value, $1,000.00

To Be Given Away by the Merchants and The Sun to Citizens of Alachua County!

Each Section Gets Prizes!

Contest to Close August 18, 1909

Realizing that all should share alike in the distribution, leading business houses have joined in the combination to give away Two Handsome Pianos and One Diamond Ring to residents of Alachua county in three different sections. These progressive firms will give One Vote for each penny spent with them.

In the event of a tie for any prize offered, a prize similar in all respects thereto will be given each of those tying.

THE A. R. HARPER PIANO CO. of Jacksonville, from whom the pianos for this contest were purchased, have agreed to offer extra prizes as follows: To the first five candidates in each district, excepting the winners of the capital prizes in the said districts, one certificate each for $100.00 which will be redeemable in cash as a payment on any piano handled by them—the Everett, Harvard, Dayton or John Church Pianos. In addition to this they will give a certificate good for $25 to all other contestants in the race, and will make special arrangements with anyone to take care of their paper on all purchases of instruments at the cash price.

The Gainesville Section Will embrace the city and suburbs and be confined to a radius of four miles in each direction. The winner in this district will be awarded a HANDSOME DIAMOND RING.

Eastern and Southern Section Will comprise territory from Fairbanks all points east and from Rockledge all points south—Waldo, Hawthorn, Island Grove, Campville, Micanopy, Lake View, Tacoma and all points along line of T. & J. Ry. ONE PIANO.

Western and Northern Section Will comprise all stations from Hague to High Springs, Trenton, Wanee, Wilcox, Bell, Newberry, Jonesville, Archer and all settlements covered by this area. ONE PIANO.

FUNERAL OF MR. NEWBORN.

Remains Will Arrive Today Over A. C. L. from Leroy.

The funeral services over the remains of the late W. C. Newborn will be held today at Evergreen Cemetery, where the interment will be made, and all friends of the family are invited to be present.

The following gentlemen have been asked to act as pall-bearers: E. J. Baird, J. F. Bunch, H. C. Roth, S. M. Mixson, M. B. Saunders, W. D. Dickinson, and they are requested to meet the train at 3:30 at Atlantic Coast Line depot.

Mr. Newborn was for a number of years section foreman here and has made Gainesville his home off and on for the past twelve years, only recently removing to Leroy, where he has a son-in-law and other relatives in business.

BIG CROWD AT WORTHINGTON.

Plenty to Eat and Merry Party Was Gathered There.

The Woodmen picnic and barbecue at Worthington Springs yesterday was a grand success in every way and a large number of citizens from Gainesville attended and report a pleasant time.

Parties from this city who were present state that it was one of the largest gatherings that had ever been assembled in those parts and everything passed off orderly and quiet. There was a great deal more prepared to eat than could have been consumed by about twice the number.

J. W. Means of McIntosh was a visitor to the city yesterday.

Miss Tillie Cook of Ocala, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Bertha Cline, passed through Gainesville last night en route to Ocala, where the latter will visit with her sisters who are living there.

The regular business meeting of Kirby Smith Chapter, which was to have been held today, has been postponed until next Thursday owing to the absence of so many of the members from the city.

Mrs. H. H. McCreary, Miss Irene McCreary, Miss Louise Walker and Elmer McCreary formed a party who took in the grand picnic at Worthington yesterday. They made the trip through the country in their new Buick and state that no trouble was experienced in any way.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Dorsey and Miss Annie Lou Bostick will leave this morning for Louisville, Ky., where they will spend a short time with relatives of Mrs. Dorsey. From Louisville they will proceed to Buffalo, Detroit, Montreal and other points, and in all will be absent about four weeks. Friends wish them a pleasant outing.

Misses Alice Strickland, Bessie Peewitt and E. Boothby of Waldo accompanied the baseball boys of that town to Gainesville yesterday. Of all the games played by Waldo this season, the young ladies say yesterday's was the worst, and they are not very loud in praise for the boys who allowed the Micanopyites to score.

Capt. Robert Frederick, the accommodating conductor on the Ocala-Jacksonville run who has been off for the past few weeks taking his annual vacation, has again resumed his run, much to the delight of a number of his many friends. During his absence the position was ably filled by Conductor Miller, who is also proving himself very popular among the traveling public.

Cols. A. P. Stucky and F. M. Simonton, both large share-holders in the T. & J. railway, were in the city yesterday on business connected with this road. Their visit will probably mean something for the good of Gainesville in the near future, as it is anticipated to place new rolling-stock and make other improvements spoken of which will give them a much better service than they are at present enjoying.

The best remedy we know of in all cases of kidney and bladder trouble and the one we always recommend, is DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. They are antiseptic and at once assist the kidneys to perform their important work. But when you ask for these pills be positive that you get DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. There are imitation placed upon sale to deceive you. Get DeWitt's. Insist upon them, and if your dealer cannot supply you—refuse anything else in place of them. Sold by all druggists.

W. W. King, of the King Lumber Company, arrived in the city yesterday for the purpose of looking after his interests here on the large Government building, which is now assuming some shape and proportions. He states that he will be here at intervals of about thirty days from this time on to look after the work.

Robert Calhoun, who has been making Gainesville his home for the past two years, returned to New York City yesterday, his old home. It is his intention to return here early in the fall if matters can be so arranged, for he states that he has had better health in this city than any place visited in the past eight years.

CITY OF OSAKA, JAPAN, IS REDUCED TO ASHES

Conflagration Eats Out Heart of Great Manufacturing
City and Destroys Twenty Thousand Houses.

OSAKA, Japan, Aug. 2.—Confusion still prevails here as the result of Saturday's disastrous fire. Thousands of people are homeless, and hunger is staring many of them in the face.

A system of relief has been organized by the municipal authorities, but it is inadequate to supply all needs. Outside cities and towns are generously sending in contributions to be used in alleviating the sufferings of the homeless and destitute.

The number of casualties has not yet been determined, but hundreds of persons are crowding the hospitals.

The latest estimate is that 20,000 buildings are destroyed, these including banks, the stock exchange, the museum, government edifices and factories. While at present it is impossible to approximate the losses, they are given at around several million yen. It is feared that some of the insurance companies will fail as a result of the heavy losses they will have to pay.

The conflagration lasted more than twenty-five hours, and the burned sections present a deplorable sight. The streets of the city are very narrow and the houses were mostly of wood construction. Under a strong breeze, therefore, the buildings were easy prey for the flames which jumped from one to another with great rapidity. Once hope was almost abandoned that the conflagration could be arrested. The firemen fought valiantly against the odds of lack of water, and the high wind, and many of them fell unconscious, while working bravely at their posts. Had not the water supply been curtailed by the existing drought, it is believed the fire would have been quenched without great damage.

During the fire the greatest confusion prevailed among the spinning girls in the factory quarter, but fortunately no serious loss of life occurred there.

The belongings of the people who were able to save anything from their burning homes are piled in great

FUNERAL OF MR. NEWBURN.

Remains Will Arrive Today Over A.
C. L. from Leroy.

The funeral services over the remains of the late W. C. Newbern will be held today at Evergreen Cemetery, where the interment will be made, and all friends of the family are invited to be present.

The following gentlemen have been asked to act as pall-bearers: E. J. Baird, J. F. Bunch, H. C. Roth, S. M. Mixson, M. B. Saunders, W. D. Dickinson, and they are requested to meet the train at 3:30 at Atlantic Coast Line depot.

Mr. Newbern was for a number of years section foreman here and has made Gainesville his home off and on for the past twelve years, only recently removing to Leroy, where he has a son-in-law and other relatives in business.

heaps along the railroad tracks from Osaka to Kobe, where they were removed early Saturday morning when the fire broke out. In the gray of the dawn of Saturday thousands of persons heavily laden with household effects, were to be seen fleeing across the numerous canal bridges, and away from the fire zone. When they had reached places of safety the burdens were laid down, and the able-bodied members of families returned to the city to assist in fighting the flames, leaving the old people to guard their effects from thieves. All day long Saturday, and far into the night the people assisted the firemen and the troops in quenching the conflagration.

An area of over four miles square, containing some of the city's handsomest structures, including the Buddhist Temple, the largest in the world, was entirely burned. The Stock Exchange, one of the most important in this country, was entirely destroyed. This loss, it is believed, will tend considerably to dislocate the business of Osaka, which, with its manufacturing concerns, is one of the chief commercial cities of Japan.

Many touching sights were to be seen during the fire. The women were terror-stricken, and fled hither and thither with their children, some of whom later cried piteously for food that could not be obtained for them.

The emperor is deeply concerned over the disaster, and it is believed that he will make a generous donation to the relief fund, and that his action will be quickly followed by gifts from charitable people and institutions.

JONESVILLE NEWS

JONESVILLE, Aug 4.—Mrs. C. O. Greene and daughter, Miss Marion, and Miss Clem Pickett, left Monday for Lake City, where they will visit friends for a few days, after which they will visit their sister, Mrs. J. R. Fowler, at Greenville.

Miss May Kirby of Gainesville visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Griffin last week.

Miss Cena Hamilton is at Sanford visiting her sister, Mrs. J. C. Fortson, who has lately moved there from Newberry.

Rev. Griffin delivered two interesting sermons to attentive congregations on last Sunday morning and evening. These were the first services we have had in our new building. The church is not finished yet, but we hope to have it completed by next Sunday, when we will begin our protracted meeting.

On Thursday night, Aug. 12th, we will have a box supper at Jonesville school house. All the ladies are requested to prepare a box with supper for two. These boxes will be sold and the proceeds will go toward buying an organ for our church. All readers are cordially invited.

J. J. Jones, who was injured by falling from his horse some few weeks ago, improves very slowly.

STATE ALIENISTS DECLAR THAW TO BE DANGERO

Three Physicians Testify That Stanford White's S
Is Still Insane---Thaw on Stand.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Aug. 4.—

Three of those medical men known as alienists, who have become such a familiar part of modern criminal court procedure, united in the Supreme Court yesterday to make it unpleasant for Harry K. Thaw, who killed Stanford White and was adjudged insane, but now demands his release from the Matteawan Asylum as a mentally normal man.

All three testified that he was insane, and when Thaw took the stand briefly, after some disconcerting testimony, he was plainly ruffled and nervous, but Mr. Jerome dismissed him after a few comparatively unimportant questions.

Of the alienists who testified, Dr. Austin Flint, Dr. William Hirsch and Dr. Amos T. Baker, the last gave testimony of the most importance. He is acting superintendent of Matteawan and appears as a witness without compensation, the only alienist in the case with this distinction. Justice Mills called attention to this fact and took a hand in questioning him.

Dr. Baker said that in his opinion Thaw was not only insane now, but a dangerous person to be at large.

Shortly after this, Mr. Jerome called Thaw to the stand. He was pale and apparently shaken. The district attorney put some rather incoherent notes written by the prisoner in evidence and asked him to explain them. After parries back and forth and laborious explanations by Thaw as to the meaning of certain writings, he said:

"And I want you to know, Mr. Jerome, that many of these notes you call suggestions were written at the request of my lawyers."

"Do you mean to tell us," served you in both homicide asked Mr. Jerome, "that you believe you did not know more the case than your lawyer did?"

"I do," was Thaw's quick

He admitted that he did off suggestions to his lawyers.

Thaw was excused after a b of this ordeal and Dr. Austi was called. Dr. Flint described paranoiac as a person domin

"Paranoiacs," he concluded

sively, "never recover."

Dr. Hirsch varied the gene dict by declaring Thaw a "de

Charles Morschauser, Thaw new, attacked this testimony ery legal expedient. In Dr. case he endeavored to show had given contradictory testi two previous cases, where he ed as an expert. He ca

PASSENGER STATION IS NOW BEING BUILT

SEABOARD CARPENTERS BEGIN WORK ON BUILDING.

State That Building Will Be Completed in About Thirty Days
At the Latest.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:
Work on the new Seaboard passenger station has at last been started, and will be rushed to completion as fast as the carpenters can do the work.

The work is under the supervision of Mr. Winter, and he says he will have the building completed with the force he now has in about thirty days. It will be the most conveniently apportioned depot in this part of the State.

On the north side the siding is being torn away, so that in future no trains will be backed in and out to interfere with gravel, and the porticos will be so arranged that parties can get under the edges and keep out of the disagreeable weather in going to and from the trains.

On the south side the baggage will be handled from the truck, and placed at convenient places for the train, instead of pulling up to the baggage room, as has been the custom, and the porticos extend over the cars, which will protect passengers from rainy weather.

Lavatories and toilets will be arranged all through the building, and it will be twice the size of the rooms now reserved for passengers, which will easily meet the demand. This matter has been under advisement and talked of for the past year or more, and they have at last gotten the plans to suit the citizens, and further delay will not be experienced, which is good news to the traveling public.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

CHARMING HOUSE PARTY
AT KINGSLEY LAKE.

STARKE, Aug. 2.—A large house party, chaperoned by Rev. and Mrs. T. C. Edwards of Starke, are now enjoying themselves at the cosy bungalow of J. F. Kickliter at Kingsley.

The charming Miss Ruby Leitner of Bartow, the lovely Miss Freddie Wainwright of Starke, the genial Miss Julia Bunch of Gainesville, and the very pleasant Miss Elizabeth Matthews of Tacoma, and Messrs. Ben and Frank Matthews of Tacoma, J. E. Thrasher of Micanopy, James Viday of Gainesville, Charley Lucien Wainwright of Starke and Master Henry Edwards of Starke, comprise the party proper, while other friends drop in occasionally to add enjoyment. Our own Miss Freddie Wainwright, by her sprightliness and loveliness, is the leading spirit of the party and all "goes merry as the marriage bell."

Vagaries of a Cold.
You can never be quite sure where a cold is going to hit you. In the fall and winter it may settle in the bowels, producing severe pain. In the summer it may give you colic with diarrhoea or summer complaint. Do not be alarmed nor torment yourself with fears of appendicitis or inflammation of the bowels. At the first sign of the pain or cramp take Perry Davis' Pain-killer in warm, sweetened water and relief will come at once. There is but one Pain-killer. Perry Davis' is now put up in a large 35c size as well as the regular 50c size.

HIGH SPRINGS NEWS.

HIGH SPRINGS, Aug. 2.—Leverette Futch of St. Petersburg is visiting friends in town.

The Woodmen of the World, Santa Fe Camp, will give a picnic at Worthington Springs on next Wednesday. A band from Jacksonville has been engaged and a grand time is promised to all.

Much interest is being taken in the piano and diamond ring contests. At present Miss Susie Bryant and Miss Willie Eubanks are in the lead.

The many friends of Rev. J. C. Rogers, the beloved pastor of the Baptist church, will be sorry to learn that he is still very sick. It is hoped that his recovery will be speedy.

Mrs. Margaret Merchant, a popular young lady of Gainesville, has returned home after a pleasant visit to the family of her uncle, H. S. Richardson.

Mrs. M. P. Summers and little daughter, Vera, have gone to LaGrange, Ga., where they will spend the rest of the summer.

Mrs. E. K. Anderson and children and Miss Annie Laird of Montgomery, Ala., have gone to Pennsylvania for the summer.

Miss Corinne Hodges, after a pleasant visit in Atlanta, has returned home.

Dr. B. C. Hodges is in Baltimore, where he went to accompany Mrs. Turner Markey, who went for treatment in a sanitarium. Mr. Markey is also with his wife.

The young people of High Springs enjoyed a birthday party given last week by Miss Kate Richardson. Every team in town was engaged for the occasion, and all report a most delightful time.

Mrs. M. G. Knight and children left Saturday for Newberry to visit Mrs. Knight's mother, Mrs. Holt, who is critically ill.

Miss Maggie Morrison of Inverness is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Morrison, much to the pleasure of her many High Springs friends.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold.

A. S. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed only to aggravate it. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar. It quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Notice.

We, the trustees of Mt. Pleasant M. E. church, do hereby agree not to be responsible for any debts, except incidental expenses, contracted or made against said church until after the Broome debt is paid in full. L. Davis, Benj. Childs, H. Richardson, Jonas Wallace, Milton Stewart, M. Bryant, J. A. DeBose, A. L. DeBose.

People with chronic bronchitis, asthma and lung trouble, will find great relief and comfort in Foley's Honey and Tar, and can avoid suffering by commencing to take it at once. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Meet to Hear Complaints.

The Board of County Commissioners met in special session Monday for the purpose of hearing the complaints of parties whose taxes had been raised by the equalizing board.

There's nothing so good for a sore throat as Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Cures in a few hours. Relieves any pain in any part.

LARGE ACREAGE FOR THE FALL TRUCKERS

BEANS WILL BE THE MAIN FALL CROP PLANTED.

Unless Ground Is Drained, Lettuce
Crops Will Fall Far Short of First Expectations.

Farmers throughout the vegetable belt from Rocky Point south are now commencing operations for their fall crops, but state that progress is uncertain owing to the continued rains.

The wet weather has interfered with them saving the hay that is usually cut the first of the year, and the ground is also so wet that it cannot be worked at the present time.

Some few of the planters who have high lands are making preparations for their fall planting by clearing away grounds, and by the 20th inst. a large number of them will have their lettuce beds sowed for the early fall transplanting.

A number of the planters who have been here during the week, stated that the largest acreage of fall beans would be planted that had ever been known in this section.

ARNOW CATCHES NEGRO.

Stole Horse and Buggy from Mic-anopy Some Time Since.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

Harry White, the negro who stole a horse and buggy from Thos. Carlton at Miccanopy some four months since, has been located by Policeman Arnow and ordered arrested at Valdosta. Following the arrest it was learned that the negro was also wanted for some minor offense there, and he will have to serve this time before turning him over to the authorities here.

The Marshal is also satisfied that he can locate the horse and buggy and will probably do this within the next few days.

OFF FOR STATE SHOOT.

Half Dozen of Gainesville Guards
Leave for St. Augustine.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

Captain J. W. Blanding on Monday sent over a half dozen men from the body of the Guards to represent this company in the State shoot to be held in the Ancient City for three days.

Those who left were: Sergeant Ralph Chapin, Corporal Marvin Mason, Corporal C. C. Simpson, Musician Davis Douglass, Private Chas. Larson.

Disagreeable at Home.

Lots of men and women who are agreeable with others, get "cranky" at home. It's not disposition—it's the liver. If you find in yourself that you feel cross around the house, little things worry you, just buy a bottle of Ballard's Herbine and put your liver in shape. You and everybody around you will feel better for it. Price 50 cents per bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Returns to the City.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

Priestly Parker, the negro drayman who jumped his bond and left for other points, returned to his home here Sunday. Shortly after his arrival Policeman Arnow placed him under arrest, and he will now be confined in the county jail until his case is called at the regular term of court.

Baby Morphine Fiends

Are made by all soothing syrups and baby medicines that contain opium and narcotics. McGee's Baby Elixir contains no injurious or narcotic drugs of any kind. A sure and safe cure for disordered stomachs, bowels and fretfulness—splendid for teething infants. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Mrs. Alligall.

"Who's the woman who calls every day to use our telephone?"

"The one who complained because our children take a short cut through her yard on their way to school."—Cleveland Leader.

For indigestion and all stomach trouble take Foley's Orino Laxative as it stimulates the stomach and liver and regulates the bowels and will positively cure habitual constipation. J. W. McCollum & Co.

PRETTY RECEPTION FOR FACULTY AND STUDENTS

DR. AND MRS. J. L. KELLEY ENTERTAIN MONDAY NIGHT.

The Normal Is Now Nearing Its Close
But Interest Has Not Flagged.

From Wednesday's Daily:
Friendship and hearty greetings have been extended to the faculty and students of the Summer Training School many times and in various modes of entertainment, but Monday night when Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Kelley threw open the doors of their new home in honor of the teachers of Southern Florida, the climax of hospitality was reached.

At eight o'clock, the receiving line consisting of Mesdames Kelley, Murphree, Floyd, Lynch and Misses Stevens and Shannon began to greet the guests, and in an hour the spacious and beautiful parlors were filled with many of the brightest and most talented teachers of the State. Nothing that perfect forethought could anticipate was lacking. Mrs. Wilburn, the charming daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Kelley, presided at the punch bowl. From the dining-room dainty and delicious refreshments were served, consisting of sherbet, cream, cake, etc.

The hours sped by with lightning wings, as the merry and sparkling converse of friends made glad and light the heart of friend. The Gainesville Orchestra discoursed sweet music during the evening to the perfect delight of the music-loving.

A most highly appreciated incident of the evening was the recitations by that queen among the young teachers, Miss Jessie Miller of Eden. Miss Miller is an artist. She not only possesses talent of the highest order, but she has the genius to develop that talent. One of the most prominent schools of Florida is trying to secure her service.

At eleven o'clock the guests dispersed, voting Dr. and Mrs. Kelley their sincere thanks for one of the most delightful evenings ever spent and carrying with them a tender feeling for Dr. Kelley and his charming family.

Normal Notes.

Though this is the last week of the Normal the interest has not flagged. The common regret is that it cannot last till the September examination.

Miss Lucille Richards returned to Sanford last Monday.

Miss Helia Cox, the accomplished daughter of Representative Cox of Polk county, left for Kathleen yesterday.

Prof. Wendell Gilbert of the South Florida Normal Institute has been chosen principal of the LaCrosse school. Two other teachers from Prof. Corr's school who have been secured by Alachua county in the last few days are Miss Hattie Hawthorn and Miss Carolina Jenny.

At the chapel exercises yesterday morning Misses Elsie Smith and Eva Poole and Mr. Beck were chosen a committee on resolutions.

No matter how long you have suffered, Foley's Kidney Remedy will help you. Mrs. S. L. Bowen, of Wayne, W. Va., writes: "I was a sufferer from kidney disease, so that at times I could not get out of bed, and when I did I could not stand straight. I took Foley's Kidney Remedy. One dollar bottle and part of the second cured me entirely." It will cure you. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Ocala Ball Club.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

The Ocala baseball club passed through here Tuesday morning for Palatka, where they were scheduled for two games. From that place they will go to Sanford for three games with the Sanford nine. In all the Ocala club has twenty-six games scheduled for the month.

While at the depot several of the local players took advantage of meeting them, and a general hand-shaking took place. The Ocala boys left over the Seaboard with the best wishes of the Oak Halls.

Torturing eczema spreads its burning area every day. Doan's Ointment quickly stops its spreading, instantly relieves the itching, cures it permanently. At any drug store.

ABSOLUTE CURE OF SKIN ERUPTION

Broke Out on Hips and Legs—Was So Sore, Irritating and Painful that Little Sufferer Could Not Sleep—Scratched Constantly and Kept Growing Worse.

CUTICURA'S EFFECT QUICK AND PERMANENT

"When about two and a half years old my daughter broke out on her hips and the upper parts of her legs with a very irritating and painful eruption. It began in October; the first I noticed was a little red surface and a constant desire on her part to scratch her limbs. She could not sleep and the eruptions got sore, and yellow water came out of them. I had two doctors treat her, but she grew worse under their treatment. Then I bought the Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Resolvent, and only used them two weeks when she was entirely well. This was in February. She has never had another rough place on her skin, and she is now fourteen years old. I used only half the bottle of Cuticura Resolvent and less than a box of Cuticura Ointment. Mrs. R. R. Whitaker, Winchester, Tenn., Sept. 22, 1908."

WOMEN

Everywhere Use Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment

For preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales and dandruff, for dry, thin and falling hair, for softening, whitening red, rough and sore hands, for annoying irritations and ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sanative, antiseptic purposes as well as for all the uses of the toilet, bath and nursery. Guaranteed absolutely pure and may be used from the hour of birth.

ACUTE WATER FAMINE DUE TO EARTHQUAKE.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 3.—After four days of one of the most acute water famines that the City of Mexico ever experienced, owing to the buckling of water mains at the time of the earthquake on Friday of last week, Guillermo Beltrany Puga, director of public works, issued a statement yesterday that by today the scarcity would be relieved and the mains repaired.

Ever since the initial shock, at 5:14 Friday morning, the water supply of the capital has been seriously impaired. Each succeeding quiver of the earth intensified the situation and caused greater buckling of the mains. In every part of the city water is at a premium and the few faucets still dripping are surrounded by crowds carrying the fluid in buckets to their homes.

LETTER TO J. M. RIVERS, Gainesville, Florida.

Dear Sir: There are thousands of people saying: "That's what I call a good job of paint, it has worn three years. I'm going to repaint before it needs it; three years is enough."

Those people are a long way behind the times. There are two reasons for painting; those people know only one; they are thinking only of wear; of keeping out water. Three years may be too long for the looks of paint; it isn't half long enough for the wear. If all you want of paint is to keep out water, Devoe is good for a dozen years in average places. And that isn't all.

The cost of the job is the first thing to think of, and, if you think of it right, you needn't bother with wear.

The paint that takes least gallons makes the least bill for both paint and painting; people forget the labor bill; it's the biggest bill in the job. A gallon saved is about $5. Five gallons saved is $25. The paint that saves gallons—that's the paint to wear.

Geo. W. Brown, Union, S. C., painted B. F. Arthur's house there twelve years ago with 30 gallons; repainted five years ago lead-and-oil with 25 gallons; last year Devoe with 14 gallons. There's $80 saved on paint and labor; don't know what he paid for that 30-gallon stuff, no matter.

Go by the gallons.
Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & CO.

P. S.: The Gainesville Hardware Co. sell our paint.

A JEALOUS MAN COMMITS MURDER

THEN TURNS GUN ON HIMSELF AND BLEW OUT HIS BRAINS.

HAD MADE TWO PREVIOUS UNSUCCESSFUL ATTEMPTS TO KILL WOMAN OF WHOM HE WAS ENAMORED.

DANVILLE, Va., Aug. 3.—As a result of spurned love, Ben Russell, a farmer about 50 years old, of this county, yesterday afternoon shot and instantly killed Mrs. Tankersley, aged 30 years, and then emptied the remaining barrel of the shotgun, with which the deed was committed, into his own head.

The double tragedy was enacted on the farm of Mrs. Tankersley, at Luck, twenty miles from Chatham. Mrs. Tankersley has for some time been living apart from her husband, whose whereabouts is not known. Ben Russell was a tenant on the plantation and was known to have been violently in love with Mrs. Tankersley.

On Wednesday the two had a quarrel and Mrs. Tankersley ordered Russell off the place. On Saturday he went to her house and fired at her twice with a shotgun, both shots being ineffective. He made another unsuccessful attempt to kill her yesterday morning. The crime was done while two small children of the slain woman were playing in the house.

Russell has had a checkered career. Several years ago he was in love with a young woman of the county and in a jealous rage fired at her. For this crime he served a year in the State prison.

BOUND OVER TO COURT.

Susie Wright Takes Child Belonging to Lizzie Rochelle.

From Saturday's Daily Sun:
Susie Wright was bound over to the circuit court on Friday on a charge of having stolen the girl baby of Lizzie Rochelle some time during last October.

After taking the child Susie left this section of the country and only returned a few days since, when she was immediately placed under arrest. The child was returned to its mother, Lizzie Rochelle, while the Wright woman will have to lay in jail until the convening of court.

Tax Notice.

Will Lay Corner Stone.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

C. J. Grace of Evinston was in the city yesterday. He says they are making great preparations for the laying of the corner stone of the new church there on August 25th. A grand picnic dinner will be served, refreshments will be sold for the benefit of the church, and fine speakers have been asked to be present. The Masonic body has also been asked to participate, and they will arrange a program which is to be published at a later date.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Subscribers to The Sun who are in arrears are urgently requested to make settlement without further delay.

Under the postal regulations we are prohibited from extending credit to subscribers for more than one year, and those who have not paid up to August, 1908, will be dropped from the list of subscribers during the next two weeks. The privilege of mailing the paper to subscribers who are in arrears for over a year is denied by the postal laws, and we have been notified to comply with this provision at once. If you fail to receive The Sun after the middle of July you will therefore know the reason therefor.

Do not wait to come to town to pay your subscription, but send the amount by mail at once. DO IT NOW.

An enquirer wants to know where the liars go to, but up to date there is no evidence that they have gone anywhere.

Range cattle in Florida never appeared to be in better condition than they do at present. They will be well prepared to undergo a severe winter, as the rains have kept the ranges well covered with grass during the past season.

The Perry Herald says in a headline to a country letter last week: "Bear killed by a man 9 feet long." That was somewhat of a man, surely, and he ought to join some traveling circus and reap a fortune as a living giant. But what we'd like to know is, how long was the bear? says The Madison Enterprise-Recorder.

The good roads question will not down. But the autos "go down" when they strike the clayed roads during this wet weather. The fact is, the only time this editor was ever "stuck" on clayed roads was when he had to traverse them during wet weather. Then he was "stuck" good and fast until he lead his horse into the wood.

The Jax Met heads an article, "Favored Spots in Florida." There is but one favored spot in Florida. In the eloquent language of Governor Bloxham, in his speeches of forty years ago, is "from the Perdido on the west to the bounding billows of the broad Atlantic on the east, and from the dark waters of the St. Mary's on the north to the bright key of the Gulf where the lone exile sits in conscious security under the broad aegis of American freedom." Florida is all to the good—Jasper News.

ATTEND THE INSTITUTES.

Our observation convinces us that the failure of the farmers' institute to sometimes accomplish that good which might reasonably be expected, is more frequently due to the farmers themselves than to any fault of the institute; but it is not denied that institute lecturers have not always fully measured up to their opportunities and responsibilities as teachers of practical agriculture.

A professor in Chicago recently indulged in an indiscriminate tirade against women. He charged them with extravagance in dress and living, with drunkenness, immorality and a general smashing of the decalogue. Such an attack is as senseless as it is false. Evidently he has fallen into the error of thinking that the character of some so-called high society women who drink, gamble, swear, dress expensively and look lightly upon marriage vows reflects the character of the average American woman. If he knew more about practical life he would not fall into such unwarrantable blunders. American women as a rule are lovers of home, chaste, thrifty, industrious, and good mothers who look well after their children.

If the institutes are going to materially aid us, we must avoid the common error of concluding that methods which have been demonstrated as practicable and effective by others on their farms will not also be practical and helpful on ours. We have repeatedly heard men state that such and such crops would not grow on their farms, and later the very same persons making these statements have grown these very same crops successfully and profitably. We have also frequently known men to try a crop, an implement or a method of cultivating or preparing the land and after one trial conclude that "it was not practical under their conditions;" but later, from further trial, they learned that these new things were so practicable and helpful that they adopted them. "What others are doing I can do," is a good motto in such matters. If implements or methods have proved generally profitable on other farms, they are likely to be of value to any man growing similar crops, if given a proper trial.

No institute lecturer is likely to advocate anything he has not tried, or anything which hundreds have not already found valuable and are using under similar conditions to yours; therefore, if your experience differs greatly from that of others the chances are that the fault is not in the crop, the implement, or the method, but in your management of it. If it is of great value to others, we should try hard to make it of value to us. Nine out of every ten who have attended the institutes are ready to admit that they have received much benefit from them, and they continue to attend them regularly every year. If the institutes are helpful to those who attend them, they would be equally helpful to the greater number who do not attend. If it pays a good farmer to attend the institutes, and this is the kind that generally go to them, it will pay all farmers to attend them.

Advocates of prohibition and local option laws assert that the enactment of such laws decreases the sale and consumption of liquor, and the opponents of such laws just as strongly assert they do not. All doubt upon the question will probably be set at rest by the official statement of the treasury department. The figures show a decrease of between four and five million barrels of beer in 1908. That means a billion pints less liquor drunk in 1908 than in 1907. That decrease is, not, perhaps, so great as temperance reformers expected, but it is a very decided decrease all the same, and one that is all the more suggestive because of the persistent attempts at illegal selling and the facilities for securing liquor in dry territory through the operations of the express companies. It all indicates that the temperance movement is a very real thing.

A Florida Republican explains that "the high cost of chickens is not because of the protective tariff on beef, but because the negroes steal so many chickens." If the negro has any political friends left in this country we should like to know where they are.

"People worry me too much," says Mr. John D. Rockefeller. And Mr. Rockefeller's idea of relieving them is to raise the price of kerosene oil now and then.

BOTH WIDE OF THE MARK.

Apparently the only way some university professors can get talked about is by giving utterance to some very foolish and unfair views. A professor in Chicago recently indulged in an indiscriminate tirade against women.

He charged them with extravagance in dress and living, with drunkenness, immorality and a general smashing of the decalogue. Such an attack is as senseless as it is false. Evidently he has fallen into the error of thinking that the character of some so-called high society women who drink, gamble, swear, dress expensively and look lightly upon marriage vows reflects the character of the average American woman. If he knew more about practical life he would not fall into such unwarrantable blunders. American women as a rule are lovers of home, chaste, thrifty, industrious, and good mothers who look well after their children.

At the same time another professor in the same city and institution went to the other extreme and sought to show that a woman, even in enlightened America, is but little better than a slave. He pictures her lot as one full of hardship, and herself an object of pity. In thought he must be living in the Dark Ages, when much of what he says was true, and not in the enlightened twentieth century.

In truth woman has made great advance during the last century or two in business, civil life and politics. And in the great majority of homes she reigns supreme, giving to the home atmosphere the graciousness, sanctity and brightness of her own life. Business vocations are open to her, and with credit and success many engage in them. All that is well, but above all woman is and always will be mostly esteemed for her fitness for her own particular sphere—the home—in which as wife and mother she is queen.

GALLS AND GULLIES.

Whenever we see a galled spot or a gully, bare of vegetation, we can't help wondering how any land-owner can get his consent to permit the continuance of such conditions. The longer they exist the worse they become. Why should any farmer permit himself to be thus robbed of his "stock in trade," his capital, his farm? Furthermore, the time lost through the necessity of more frequent turns, or in working over or around them, rightly employed, would prevent their existence or restore them to a useful condition after they have been formed. We do not believe in filling gullies with rails, brush, or other materials which are likely to be in the way later on. For gullies or galled spots, the best remedy is straw, coarse stable manure, or some other material that will improve their fertility. Follow this with some growing crop. If a gully, plow dirt into it, turn the excess of water in another direction and sow peas; if a galled spot, plow deeply and keep something growing on it all the time. We have seen gullies ten feet deep filled and brought up to the most productive parts of the field in three or four years by a liberal application of straw, leaves, or coarse stable manure and the sowing of cowpeas. It will pay to fill them up for the crops they will bring, and if the fields are to be put in condition for the use of implements necessary for economical cultivation, these scarred and galled fields, so common in many parts of the South, must be made to disappear.—Raleigh (N. C.) Progressive Farmer.

At an elevation of 9,000 feet, near the summit of Mount San Jacinto, Cal., Supervisor Marshall of the Cleveland national forest reserve has discovered an extensive lake. It is extremely hazardous of access, to the north and south of it there being unscalable spurs with no trails. At one place in climbing the canyon to the summit the water may be seen through a cleft in the rocks. The lake lies much higher than Lake Tahoe. Struggling over the ledge which hides it, Marshall discovered magnificent views. There are indications of a great depth. From the peak can be seen Mexico, Nevada, Arizona, the Mojave desert, Salton Sea, and the Channel Islands, near Santa Barbara.

A Southern State has made it a misdemeanor to give trading stamps. A jail sentence was about the only thing left one could not get with the trading stamps.

FRANK CLARK.

A few editors delight in criticizing Congressman Frank Clark's position on the tariff, and never miss an opportunity to republish matter which they consider detrimental to his political interests.

Mr. Clark's position on the tariff was well-known before he was elected to Congress for the first term, as he proclaimed it from the stump in every county in the district as well as in printed matter mailed to every voter. He is for a tariff for revenue only, but as long as revenue has to be raised by a duty on foreign products imported into this country, he believes, and justly so, that Florida-grown cotton, fruits, vegetables, tobacco, etc., should receive the benefit of a protective tariff on such articles imported into this country. A tariff on cotton imported into the United States would be worth millions to the growers of Sea Island cotton in Georgia and Florida in the same proportion as it has been beneficial to other sections of the country on other products. The manufacturer of cotton goods in this country is protected against competition from the same goods manufactured in England, but the producer of the staple from which these goods are manufactured has to grow the cotton in competition with the pauper labor of Egypt, India and other foreign countries. Is there any justice in this, when iron ore, etc., is given the benefit of protection against foreign competition?

The corn, wheat, barley, oats, wool, animals, and everything produced in the West, is protected by the tariff, but the produce of cotton has to labor in competition with the peons of India and Egypt. There is no justice in such a discriminating tariff, and Mr. Clark is to be commended for his efforts in behalf of his constituents. He has labored faithfully to better the conditions of his people, especially the farmers, and the opposition to him emanates from personal as well as political enemies.

But Frank Clark is equal to the present emergency, and the man who opposes him for re-election in the primaries of 1910 will find that Clark has the people back of him.

Not to return Frank Clark to Congress under the present circumstances would be an acknowledgement on the part of the people that they do not appreciate the efforts of a faithful public servant to better their condition.

MELROSE NEWS NOTES.

MELROSE, Aug. 4.—Rev. Barr and family have returned from their vacation and their many friends are pleased to see them back.

The "Santa Fe" took out a full load of Leconte pears in barrels on Tuesday.

During the month of July the total rainfall as measured by U. S. Standard gauge was 11.23 inches.

The birthdays of Miss Clara Belle Mack and Herbert Chamberlain were celebrated on Thursday by a jolly children's party at Mrs. Chamberlain's. A trip on the lake in the "Dixie" was one of enjoyable features of the afternoon.

The store of A. A. McRae is being much improved by the repainting of the interior and the fixtures.

Your correspondent had occasion to take a drive through the so-called Price settlement, near Melrose, yesterday. It was a great pleasure to see the fine fields of corn, averaging over 20 bushels per acre, the large peanut patches, sugar cane and velvet bean fields and to see the cotton pickers at work already. To show what can be done by our farmers it might be mentioned that the five Price brothers put up this season 25,200 cans of tomatoes, mostly three-pound cans, and there are other. The failure of the peach crop prevented them from putting up any this year. For all these goods there is a ready sale, as they are far superior to the Northern article.

Someone, who perhaps was speaking out of a bitter experience, once said that "God sends food and the devil sends cooks." Not many people will accept the latter part of that statement, but it is undeniable that many young women marry who have had no training in the essentials of successful home-making, and surely cooking is an essential. Because of this deficiency many homes are made unhappy. Love is a necessity of a happy wedded life, but love is apt to get killed by poor housekeeping.

NO TARIFF FOR ENGLAND.

Reports from England indicate that country is so well satisfied with free trade that there is little prospect of Joseph Chamberlain winning out in his fight to re-establish protective tariff, which was abolished in 1846.

The English Liberal leaders of Parliament are setting up the American and German tariff troubles as horrible examples which should warn England against following in their footsteps. For a time it appeared as if the protectionists, under the lead of Mr. Chamberlain, were gaining ground, but it now seems the sentiment of the nation is again swinging around in defense of free trade, and it is extremely doubtful if England will ever countenance protection again. The British people have been enlightened as to the benefits of free trade by extensive educational work carried on by the Liberals. For instance, it has been pointed out, and the contention sustained by facts, that while wages are higher in England under free trade than in high-protection France, Germany and other European nations, the cost of living is considerably cheaper in England than in the high-protection countries; also, that the American consumer has been placed at the complete mercy of trusts by high-protection, and is paying unreasonable high prices for wearing apparel, foodstuffs and manufactures.

Addressing a meeting of city men in London recently, Premier Asquith declared that the Liberals would not look at any suggestion for a tariff, saying:

"Two great countries, the two greatest commercial rivals we have in the world, have been trying their hands at tariff fabrications for the last two or three years. Germany for two years has had in operation a full-blown scientific tariff, and Germany's deficit is much greater than our own."

"And if we look on the other side of the Atlantic, they have just completed a revision of the Dingley tariff. It is not for us to speak disrespectfully or find pleasure and complacency in the troubles of our friends and neighbors, but when we are told that the sovereign remedy for our financial troubles is to create in Great Britain what has been created in Germany, and what is just being re-created in America—a general tariff—we are entitled to look to the experience of those who have adopted these methods. And what is the case of the new American tariff? Why, as far as I can make out, it is universally condemned by the whole American press and regarded by the American people as a triumph of particular interests over general interests, for they see the trusts and monopolies re-introduced and reinforced in their long and too victorious campaign against the consumer."

That's an astonishing sight—Cabinet officers actually cutting down the Government expenses.

MISS ELLA JOLLY IS FIRST IN SOUTHERN

DEVELOPS GREAT STRENGTH IN CLOSING DAYS OF CONTEST.

Only Two Weeks More and Race Will Be Over and Prizes Awarded to the Winners.

Miss Ella Jolly of Orange Heights takes first place in the Eastern and Southern section, with Miss Mabel McCredie second. Miss Beal holds first place in Gainesville and Miss Lucinda Bryant of Bell is first in the Northern and Western section.

Miss Jolly has developed remarkable strength during the past three weeks, and has gone from about tenth place to first, which shows how rapid she has been advancing.

Only two more weeks remain for the final wind-up, when the grand prizes will be awarded, also all of the certificates mailed to the ones entitled to them, and the work that will be put forth by the candidates from this time on will be interesting.

Some of the out-of-town candidates are now centering on the city and either visiting here regularly or coming each week to work for their interest, and it is rumored that many of the lower ones have great surprises to spring during the next few days.

The prizes are all handsome and expensive and are well worth the hard work that has been done to secure them.

Following is the result of the canvass:

T. & J. RAILWAY IS REPORTED TO BE SOLD

NOTHING DEFINITE COULD BE LEARNED OF TRANSACTION.

Officials and Stockholders of Company Were All Here Yesterday "for Something."

It was rumored here yesterday that the T. & J. railway had again changed hands, this time the purchasers being the G. C. & P. Railway Company.

This road is a small one, running from Collins through a most fertile section, and is said to be about seventy miles in length, but with a great future before it is branching out and making for the Gulf.

The Sun reporter tried to verify the report last night, and even yesterday afternoon asked Mr. Stucky, who is president of the T. & J. Company, if there was anything in the meeting of the principal stockholders of the company, but received no definite answer.

It is known, however, that the private car of the officials of the G. C. & P. is now in the city, and was here nearly all of yesterday presumably for this purpose, and something definite will very likely be given for publication within a short while.

Both Messrs. Stucky and Simonton, who are leading stockholders in the T. & J., were here yesterday, but nothing could be gained from them in reference to the deal.

WALDO AND MICANOPY PLAYED A TIE GAME

Waldo and Micanopy journeyed here yesterday for the purpose of "cleaning up" each other, but after the tenth inning the game was called, the score standing 7 to 7.

Waldo easily had the Micanopy players outclassed from a general standpoint of ball players, for their team has been playing good amateur ball up to the contest here yesterday, but in this game they went to pieces and the battery, which did good work, received poor support.

Local interest was in favor of the Micanopyites from the first owing to Waldo having made four runs before they had managed to score even one, and in the last half of the eighth inning the small crowd present went wild over the errors of Waldo, which let in five runners, allowing them to tie the score. This reminded one of the game of a few days ago when the Olympics tallied six times on the Oak Halls in one inning.

In the tenth inning Willie Jolly prevented Micanopy from scoring when two were out and second and third occupied by making a beautiful one-handed catch in left after a hard run. The man who held down second base, and Curry Merchant on short, for Micanopy, did the best work for their team.

The score by innings:

Micanopy...0 0 2 0 0 0 0 5 0 0-7

The batteries were: Micanopy, Sparkman and Hester; Waldo, Prewitt and Harvey.

DEATH OF MR. ATWATER.

Postmaster of Waldo Died Very Suddenly Yesterday Morning.

Postmaster H. C. Atwater of Waldo dropped dead at his home at that place at an early hour yesterday morning, supposedly from heart failure.

He was a gentleman rather advanced in years, and had been postmaster of Waldo for the past twelve years, which made him a man who was often met and generally known throughout this section.

He arose at his usual early hour and prepared his breakfast, as was his usual custom before going to the office, but after finishing his meal he started for the door and fell, never regaining himself and death resulted before a physician could be summoned.

His wife had noticed that he was feeling of his head when he first got up, and when asked what was the matter, replied he had a slight headache and would soon be all right. This was his only conversation, as he never spoke after being seated in a chair.

A GREAT RESERVOIR BURSTS WITH ROAR

AND WATER RUSHED INTO IRRIGATED DISTRICT.

1,000,000,000 Cubic Feet of Water Loosed at Once—Great Damage.

No Lives Lost.

FORT MORGAN, Colo., Aug. 4.—The irrigation section north of here is the scene of devastation, owing to the bursting of the retaining walls of the great Government reservoir Monday afternoon.

With a roar, 1,000,000,000 cubic feet of water rushed out of the widening breach, carrying everything before it. It swept across the valley with a roar, and although the ground is almost a dead level, it cut a great shallow ditch half a mile and more than a mile long. Several farms were destroyed by the great wash of water, but it so happened that no one was caught in the flood.

The damage will reach several hundred thousand dollars. The Government had expended a great sum of money in building the reserve wall.

LOCHLOOSA NEWS.

LOCHLOOSA, Aug. 4.—J. H. Upthegrove, Miss Daisy Belle Simmons, R. Upthegrove and wife, J. W. Upthegrove and wife, and Thomas Morrison, left Sunday night for Tampa, where they will spend a few days with friends.

C. V. Fowler was unexpectedly called to Greenville, Fla., last Saturday on account of the serious illness of his father, Giles Fowler. We all hope for him a speedy recovery.

W. P. Tompkins and W. T. Richardson went to Gainesville on Monday to attend to some business affairs.

D. Posey made a business trip to Gainesville Monday.

Miss Elsie Hayman returned home Thursday from Inverness, where she has been for the past two weeks with friends and relatives.

Mrs. H. V. Cassels of Island Grove spent a few days in town last week.

J. C. Hayman, S. A. L. agent, has been quite ill for the past few days, but is improving now. We all hope to see him out again soon.

Miss Roy Fay and Robert Caldwell spent last Sunday with friends and relatives at Hawthorn.

John Hayman spent last Sunday evening with a lady friend of his at Island Grove.

The citizens of Hawthorn and Lochloosa gathered at the picnic grounds on the banks of the beautiful Lochloosa lake Thursday for a fish fry. The day was beautiful up until time for dinner, when the downpour of rain descended. The fish were fried and after the rain dinner was served. The remainder of the evening was spent in launch riding on the lake. About 10 o'clock all departed for their homes after having spent a most enjoyable day. There will be another soon.

The young folks gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Caldwell Sunday night for the purpose of a "Sing." The guests arrived at 7:45 o'clock and sang until about 10 o'clock, when they all departed with rather weak lungs.

I. W. Stewart, manager of the Lochloosa barber shop, made a business trip to Hawthorn Monday.

E. A. Dupree and wife of Island Grove spent last Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Tompkins.

Palatka Shuts Ocala Out.

Palatka defeated Ocala in the game there Tuesday 3 to 0, and it was an interesting contest. Walker not allowing a hit to the Ocala nine.

In the second game at Palatka yesterday between Ocala and that city Ocala was defeated by a score of 4 to 0. The result of these two games can better show the people what to expect in the two games between Gainesville and the Palatka boys on the local lot for the next two days.

GLANDERS IN HORSES CURABLE BY MALLEIN

Governor Gilchrist Gives Valuable Information Obtained From Experiments By U. S. A. Officers.

TALLAHASSEE, Aug. 3.—To supplement the information relative to the treatment of glanders in horses which he obtained from Col. Hugh L. Scott, Superintendent of the United States Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., and embodied in an interview upon his return to Florida, Governor Gilchrist wrote to the Quartermaster-General of the United States Army for copies of reports which had been made to the department on this subject, and has received copies of several such reports, from which the following extracts are published for the information of interested persons in Florida.

Dr. Thomas P. Shanahan, veterinary surgeon of the Quartermaster's Department, U. S. A., reports as follows:

"Glanders having broken out among the horses of the 3rd squadron, 14th Cavalry, stationed at Jolo, P. I., comprising troops "I," "

Virginia Republicans to Run Kent for Governor

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., July 30.—
Placing themselves squarely on record as having local option with counties and cities as the unit instead of magisterial districts as under the present law, the Virginia Republicans yesterday accepted the liquor question as an issue in the approaching gubernatorial campaign. Then, after adopting a platform, of which the liquor plank was the principal feature, and electing a State ticket headed by William P. Kent of Wythe, present American consul general to Guatemala, they adjourned their State convention sine die.

The discussion of prohibition was precipitated soon after the convention met by the reading of the following plank as drafted by the resolution committee:

"We favor the general principle of local option, high license, rigid police protection, and a strict enforcement of the law."

Objection to this resolution came instantly and emphatically from Southwest Virginia. The plank as reported was declared to be meaningless and indicative of acquiescence in the existing law.

As a substitute, State Senator A. T. Lincoln offered the following:

"We favor the general principle of local option and that the counties and cities be a unit in all elections on the liquor question with rigid enforcement of the law."

Mr. Lincoln led the fight for its adoption and was so conspicuously sensational in urging his cause that after the substitute had been incorporated in the platform by a vote of 700 to 310, he was immediately put forward as a candidate for Lieutenant Governor. Although a slate already had been prepared, the leaders thought it wise to nominate him for the second place on the ticket and no one opposed him.

The Ticket.

The ticket nominated was as follows:

Locker Clubs Raided; Many Sent to Jail

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 3.—Wholesale arrests of locker club proprietors and inmates were made by the police department yesterday afternoon and men were still being brought to the city jail last night, where they are locked up until gilt-edge bonds can be made for their appearance in court. About one hundred clubs are involved. Out-of-town detectives recently employed by Mayor O'Brien came to Birmingham and obtained cards to practically every club in town and have been gathering evidence for about six weeks.

DISPENSARIES CLOSE IN SOUTH CAROLINA

LARGE SALE OF LIQUOR IN PREPARATION FOR DRAUGHT.

Will Remain Closed for Three Weeks or a Month if Not Permanently.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 3.—At sundown yesterday every dispensary in South Carolina closed its doors—some of them probably permanently, the others for a period of about three weeks or a month.

The sales of liquor on the eve of the drought are reported to have been large.

Two weeks from Monday every wet county in the State will have a chance to speak on the liquor question, each for itself to profit by the fortnight's experience in prohibition territory.

At midnight last night an especially stringent liquor law went into effect, providing a fine of at least $100 or imprisonment for three months or more for the first conviction of the sale of liquor and imprisonment for one to five years, without alternative fine, for the second offense.

Woman loves a clear, rosy complexion. Burdock Blood Bitters purifies the blood, clears the skin, restores ruddy, sound health.

For Governor, William P. Kent of Wythe.

For Lieutenant Governor, A. T. Lincoln of Smythe.

For Attorney-General, George A. Revere of Covington.

For Secretary of the Commonwealth, John B. Locke, Newport News.

For State Treasurer, Joseph P. Kruppner of Alexandria.

For Commissioner of Agriculture, James T. Robinson of Rockingham.

For Superintendent of Public Institutions, Frank P. Brent of Nelson.

State Chairman C. Bascom Slemp spent the greater part of Wednesday in heading off what appeared to be a well-organized movement to nominate him for Governor. He finally accomplished this by appealing to the heads of the ten district delegations not to allow anyone to place his name before the convention.

Active Campaign.

In accepting the nomination for Governor, Mr. Kent told the convention that he was prepared to wage an active fight and would do his best to win. Mr. Lincoln said that he would accept the nomination for Lieutenant Governor in order to give strength to the prohibition movement.

The Abingdon dispensary, in Washington county, in Southwest Virginia, is said to have been largely responsible for the fight which the Prohibitionists waged with such success yesterday.

Delegates from the southwest declared that they had won a big victory, as the sale of liquor was a great menace in that section owing to poor police protection.

Mr. Kent, the nominee for Governor, is a son of a former Democratic Lieutenant Governor of Virginia. He was a gold Democrat until Bryan was nominated the first time. He is said to be a man of large means, a good stump speaker and one qualified to wage an active fight.

Gruesome Find of Woman Who Died From Hunger

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Aug. 3.—The woman lying on a pallet on the floor dead, her mouth filled with bits of cracker in a last effort to sustain life, and her three children, ranging in age from 2 to 9 years, asleep beside the body, one unconscious, was the gruesome picture presented when neighbors forced their way into the tenement apartment of Mrs. Della Chrystie, 35 years old, here.

Mrs. Chrystie had been ill, dwellers in the tenement state, and for several weeks they have ministered to her wants. Monday night when their request for admission to the room was unanswered they forced an entrance.

The condition of the body indicated that the woman had been dead for several hours. That death resulted from lack of nourishment was the opinion of the police surgeon summoned.

Mrs. Chrystie came to Memphis about twelve years ago from St. Louis. Her husband died several years ago. That she was a woman of refinement neighbors declare was apparent.

Speaker Cannon's Fight to Increase Tax on Gloves

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 2.—One of the most edifying spectacles of the tariff session has been that presented by Speaker Cannon almost attempting to hold up the passage of the bill, actually sending threats to the White House because the President would not approve the deal which Mr. Cannon made with former Representative Littauer for extortionate duties on women's gloves, which Mr. Littauer, who is one of the largest glove manufacturers in the country, wishes to make without foreign competition at his plant at Gloversville, N. Y. When, at the beginning of the session, there was a threat to defeat "Uncle Joe" Cannon in the race for the Speakership, and when a large number of Republicans joined forces with the Democrats to prevent the readoption of the Reed rules which make the Speaker nothing short of a despot, Cannon sent for Littauer and made a hard and fast agreement with him that he should have prohibitive duties on women's gloves if he would save Cannon from defeat. Littauer, who is a liberal entertainer, achieved the task assigned to him with, as will be remembered, the help of a few Tammany Democrats who turned traitor to their party in consideration of special favors which the Speaker was in a position to grant. The Ways and Means Committee met, and the Payne bill contained the glove duties demanded by Littauer as the price of his assistance to the Speaker. The House objected, but was powerless under the rules to prevent the glove duties being adopted without defeating the entire bill. Influential members of the House immediately began work in the Senate, however, to prevent the adoption of the glove duties there, and were successful. The Dingley rates were adopted in the Senate and the bill went to conference. Meanwhile, however, the President learned of the Cannon-Littauer trade and determined to defeat it. When the tariff bill went to conference Speaker Cannon "picked" the committee against Representative Payne in order to insure the retention of the glove duties. But the President informed the conferees that he would never agree to any increase over the Dingley rates on gloves. Cannon went to the White House after first telegraphing to Littauer to come to Washington and make the fight. The Speaker told the President that he was an old man, that he had just one request to make, and that was that he be permitted to keep his promise to Littauer. The President was thoroughly disgusted that such a trade should have been made, that the people of the country were to be compelled to pay tribute to Littauer for the far from meritorious privilege of having Cannon Speaker of the House. He told Cannon so very plainly. That did not silence the Speaker, however. He has been making political deals all his life, and was absolutely unable to see anything improper in his conduct or to grasp the President's meaning. He never ceased his fight. The conferees promised the President to report the Dingley duties, but Cannon kept up the contest. Finally, when the conferees had agreed to the President's demand for free hides, Cannon got them to demand the President's approval of a compromise on the glove schedule. The compromise was rejected, but even after that a still further compromise was proposed.

The Republican conferees have come very near wrecking the tariff bill altogether. Their insistence on the glove rates demanded by Cannon and Littauer and the duty on lumber demanded by certain Western Senators placed the bill in serious jeopardy, and incidentally demonstrated to the leaders of the Senate and the House that although he was big and good natured and apparently easy going, William H. Taft possessed a determination more dangerous to encounter once it was aroused even than that of Theodore Roosevelt.

Wronged Woman Slays Husband and Affinity

CANTON, Ohio, Aug. 3.—An elopement terminated in the murder of Tony Panilla and Mrs. Clara Pizzani, by Mrs. Panilla, wife of the sail man, here. After shooting her husband, Mrs. Panilla attacked Mrs. Pizzani with a butter knife. A struggle followed, Mrs. Pizzani being stabbed thirty times. During the struggle, Mrs. Pizzani succeeded in reaching a telephone and held her antagonist at bay while she called the police station. Mrs. Panilla overpowered her, however, before the telephone conversation was completed, and Mrs. Pizzani was dead when the police learned of the trouble.

Panilla deserted his wife in Deans,

N. J., and Mrs. Pizzani left her husband, Peter Pizzani, and child, in New York City, and eloped to Canton last February, the police say.

Mrs. Panilla later came to Canton, and found the couple together. Her husband agreed to live with her again if she would permit Mrs. Pizzani to occupy part of their residence. The woman agreed to this, and for the last month the three have been occupying the house together.

Mrs. Panilla said she saw her husband in Mrs. Pizzani's room yesterday and the sight crazed her.

GUAVA JELLY.

By John Bellings, Florida Agricultural Experiment Station.

Undiluted guava juice consists of over 90 per cent of water, about 5 per cent of sugars, and a small percentage of pectin and acid. It also contains some substances which give the color and flavor to the jelly made from it. Pure guava jelly usually contains about 20 per cent of water, about 75 per cent of sugars, and the rest is pectin, acid, etc. During the boiling of the mixture of juice and cane-sugar, the acid acts on the sugar, and changes part of it into invert sugar, so that it forms a syrup; and if there is enough acid the sugar will not crystallize out. This strong syrup causes the pectin to set as a jelly. The pink color is deepened by longer boiling, or by more acid.

Amounts of Juice and Sugar.

Suppose a large amount of water is added when cooking the guavas. Now if equal amounts of this diluted juice and cane-sugar are taken to make the jelly, there may not be enough pectin, in which case the jelly will not set properly, or will be sticky if it does set; or there may not be enough acid, and the jelly will "sugar;" or there may not be enough of the guava flavor. If a large amount of water has been used in cooking the fruit, more juice and less sugar should be taken to make the jelly. If the guavas have been cooked in a double boiler without water, equal amounts of juice and sugar will yield a good jelly. It was found that the juice from two pounds of ripe guavas, with one pound of sugar, yielded less than one and a half pounds of jelly.

How Far to Boil.

When boiling the jelly, the temperature rises as more and more water evaporates. To secure a uniform jelly, it is desirable always to stop at the same point. This can best be done by the use of a glass thermometer. Such an instrument, reading to 300 degrees F., can usually be bought from a drug store; or if not procurable there, can be purchased for 60 cents from the Arthur H. Thomas Company, Philadelphia. In a series of tests it was found that the best jelly was made when the boiling was stopped at 235 degrees F. It is usually necessary to stop the boiling for a moment, when using the thermometer, because of the bubbling. If the same amount of water is always used in cooking the ripe guavas, and the same proportions of juice and sugar are taken, and if the temperature which is found to give the best jelly is measured with a thermometer, it will be possible to turn out a uniform product year after year.

No iron or steel should come in contact with the fruit or juice. The guavas may be heated till soft in an enamored or aluminum vessel with a small amount of water at the bottom, or in a double boiler. The juice should be squeezed out through cloth in a strong press, measured, and the proper amount of granulated sugar added. A deep aluminum vessel is useful for boiling down the juice. When the sugar has dissolved, the solution can be filtered through cloth. It is boiled down till the thermometer marks the proper temperature, and then run into glasses or molds.

Will Remove Dental Office.

Dr. Geo. S. Waldo has leased the floor above Broome's dry goods store on East east side of the square and after extensive alterations and improvements will move into one of the most convenient and modern dental offices anywhere in the country.

The operating room will be finished in white enamel. The latest improved electric and hydraulic dental outfit will be installed, including apparatus for the sterilizing of all water, instruments and materials for each operation in full view, giving the patient a feeling of security from any chance of infection, and making a complete sanitary office.

A private lounging room for weak patients is provided, as well as private lavatory and dressing room for ladies.

It is Dr. Waldo's aim to make his new office strictly modern and up-to-date, furnishing everything for the comfort, safety and convenience of his patients.

Rev. Warren's Explanation.

The Ocala Star of Tuesday says: "A letter from Rev. L. B. Warren, who is now visiting his mother in Macon, Ga., says regarding his visit to Ocala from Gainesville, about ten days ago, which the Gainesville correspondent of The Times-Union considered such a darksome mystery: 'My coming to Ocala was not mysterious, nor was my leaving Gainesville negligible in the least degree. Harry Shaw dropped in at the morning service, consented to take the evening hour, in view of two letters handed me by Will Dale, calling me to Ocala, if the trip were possible. So I left full explanations with Shaw and Dale and bade me thence."

Baseball Thursday and Friday.
